An “Unconference” for Language Educators

The event, organized by the CT Council of Language Teachers and the CCSU Modern Language Department, is modeled after “Edcamps,” and allows attendees to propose, present, or attend any sessions created that day. After three forty-five minute sessions, attendees will participate in a “smackdown” where learning is shared through our session board and “living room,” a digital “room” where session notes are stored and shared.

Walk-ins welcomed!
